

Source Control Technology for Mining and Other Sites

John Vermillion, Environmental Products & Applications

- Application of acrylic polymers to reduce metals leaching and control fugitive dust from tailing impoundments
- Application of acrylic polymers to reduce radiological impacts from high level contaminated radioactive waste materials
- Additional applications of acrylic polymers for containment of mine waste materials.